Chief Minister, Treasury and Economic Development Directorate

Position: E728

(Executive Band 1)

Date circulated: 23 March 2020

Circulated to: ACTPS Senior Executive List, ACTPS, SOGA

We are currently recruiting Executive Branch Managers - Communications and Engagement to be deployed as required across ACT Public Service directorates or within the Public Information Coordination Centre (PICC) that is currently activated for the COVID 19 Pandemic.

There's never been a more important time to ensure the Canberra community is well informed about government programs, policies and services, and has meaningful opportunities to inform decision making.

This is an excellent opportunity to advance your professional skills and experience. If you:

- have an established track record in providing advice and implementing contemporary and emerging C&E services
- bring an audience-first lens to your work, informed by research, insights and evaluation
- have significant experience in leadership roles in C&E, leading high performing teams
- have a strong focus on maintaining effective working relationships with stakeholders, and
- hold relevant tertiary qualifications.

It is essential applicants can work flexibly in a fast-paced and dynamic environment, with some out of hours work required.

Several positions are expected to become available for periods of between 3 and 12 months. A merit pool will be established to fill these positions as they arise.

To apply: please provide your CV, a two-page expression of interest which broadly addresses the selection criteria and is based on the ACTPS Executive Capabilities and details of two referees to Anita Perkins via email to kellie.yarrow@act.gov.au by COB Tuesday 24 March 2020.

Note: Selection may be based on application and referee reports only. A temporary contract will be offered at the Executive Level 1.1 to 1.4 depending on the skills and experience of the successful applicant.

Remuneration: The position attracts a remuneration package ranging from $207,171 - $260,803 depending on current superannuation arrangements of the successful applicant. This includes a cash component ranging from $156,010 - $195,520.

Contact Officer: Anita Perkins, EGM, Communications and Engagement, CMTEDD (02) 6205 0035 or Nicole Mahar, Executive Branch Manager, Whole of Government Communications, CMTEDD (02) 6205 9530.

This process is open to current and non-ACTPS staff.

Environment

Conservation Research

Senior Vegetation Ecologist

Senior Professional Officer Grade C $107,475 - $115,687, Canberra (PN: 00637)

Gazetted: 20 March 2020

Closing Date: 3 April 2020

Details: The Conservation Research unit in the Environment Division provides science-based information for environment conservation, policy, planning and management, based on field research and monitoring. The unit has a focus on threatened species, potential and current threatening processes, ecological restoration, the collection of baseline biological data and providing conservation advice on environmental issues.

An opportunity exists in the Vegetation Section for a Senior Ecologist who will be responsible for the delivery of many aspects of a program of research and monitoring of ACT vegetation and ecosystems. The focus of the position is to provide advice to government on matters relating to vegetation management including threatened plants, and to manage and undertake ecological studies to assist the government in its conservation, planning, and land management responsibilities. You will be responsible for overseeing the scientific management of the ACT Vegetation Mapping Project, analysing threatened plant species data, contributing to land management agreements and continuing the process of developing the review and revision of the ACT Woodland Strategy. The senior vegetation ecologist provides information and advice to support the ACT Conservator of Flora and Fauna and is critical to delivering research outcomes and providing input to the Scientific Committee. The ACT Public Service supports workforce diversity and is committed to creating an inclusive workplace. As part of this commitment, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples, people with disability, culturally diverse people and those who identify as LGBTIQ are encouraged to apply.

Eligibility/Other requirements: A tertiary qualification is required in a field of environmental management or biological science, preferably including studies in ecology and conservation of plants and ecosystems. Other experience is outlined in the Selection Criteria.

Note: This is a temporary position available immediately until 20 November 2020. An order of merit will be established from this selection process and may be used to fill future identical vacancies over the next 12 months. Selection may be based on application and referee reports only. This position will be moving to a new workplace designed for activity-based working (ABW) in 2020. Under ABW arrangements, officers will not have a designated workstation/desk.

How to Apply: Expressions of Interest are sought from potential candidates and should include a supporting statement of no more than two pages outlining experience and/or ability including contact details of at least two referees and a current curriculum vitae.

Applications should be submitted via the Apply Now button below.

Gazetted: 24 March 2020

Closing Date: 31 March 2020

Details: ACT Corrective Services is looking for an enthusiastic, motivated and conscientious person to fill temporarily the position of AMC Detainee Induction Coordinator (ASO6) in Custodial Operations.

The successful applicant will coordinate, administer and manage the detainee induction processes, programs and functions within the Alexander Maconochie Centre (AMC) and ensure detainees are fully supported throughout the formal induction process, making sure all necessary services are linked to the induction process.

In addition, you will assist in the identification and selection of suitable peer support detainees to support new inductions, ensure a structured day is in place for all inductions that is consistent with Regime Management requirements and ensure Case Management services are accessible and provided for all new inductions, including allocations of case officers and case managers. Further to this, you will be responsible for maintaining the Detainee Handbook, ensuring each detainee receives a security classification during their induction period, assist in placement decisions for completed inductions and confirm individual induction processes have been completed prior to further accommodation area placement. To be successful, you will possess excellent interpersonal, organisational and communication skills necessary to build rapport with a diverse range of clients and stakeholders. The ACT Public Service supports workforce diversity and is committed to creating an inclusive workplace. As part of this commitment, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples, people with disability, culturally diverse people and those who identify as LGBTIQ are encouraged to apply.

Eligibility/Other Requirements:

Demonstrated experience and/or willingness to work with detainees is essential.

The successful candidate may be required to undergo a National Police check.

Prior to commencing this role, a current registration issued under the Working with Vulnerable People (Background Checking) Act 2011 is required. For further information on Working with Vulnerable People registration refer to - https://www.accesscanberra.act.gov.au/app/answers/detail/a_id/1804.

Probation and Parole Officer

Administrative Services Officer Class 6 $85,394 - $97,732, Canberra (PN: 46200, several)

Gazetted: 20 March 2020

Closing Date: 10 April 2020

Details: A career opportunity has arisen in ACT Corrective Services (ACTCS) for a highly motivated, values-driven professional to join Community Corrections and Release Planning as a Probation and Parole Officer (PPO). A career as a PPO is unlike any other in the Public Service and is challenging and genuinely rewarding. In collaboration with offenders, you will be required to assess, develop, implement and monitor case management plans that aim to reduce the potential for reoffending. You will also be required to carry out home visit assessments and supervise and monitor offenders living in the community, as well as advise and direct offenders to appropriate community based offender management programs. As a PPO you will be required to provide written and verbal reports to the Courts and releasing authorities in relation to offender management, risk assessment and intervention. To be successful in this role, you will be able to work collaboratively, compose and edit complex written material and demonstrate a high level of analytical and organisational skills. A capacity to meet critical deadlines is essential. Whilst experience in working with offenders and relevant tertiary qualifications are highly desirable, as is case management experience, we are interested in hearing from people from a variety of backgrounds. The ACT Public Service supports workforce diversity and is committed to creating an inclusive workplace. As part of this commitment, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples, people with disability, culturally diverse people and those who identify as LGBTIQ are encouraged to apply.

Eligibility/Other Requirements: Experience working with offenders and relevant tertiary qualifications are highly desirable. Eligible candidates will be required to undergo a National police check. A Certificate IV in Correctional Practice or the ability to achieve this qualification within 12 months of commencing employment. Must complete designated ACTCS PPO suite of training programs within 12 months of commencing employment. Applicants may be required to undertake psychological aptitude testing as part of the assessment process. A current driver's licence, and a willingness/ability to drive within ACT, is essential. Prior to commencing this role, a current registration issued under the Working with Vulnerable People (Background Checking) Act 2011 is required. For further information on Working with Vulnerable People registration refer to - https://www.accesscanberra.act.gov.au/app/answers/detail/a_id/1804. Position number 46200 is a designated position and is only open to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people. Therefore, the following qualification applies. This is a designated position in accordance with s42, Discrimination Act 1991 and is only open to Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander people. Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander heritage is considered essential and therefore a Confirmation of Aboriginality may be requested.

Note: There are permanent and temporary positions available.

How to Apply: Applicants are required to submit four items: (1) A one to three page written response addressing the professional/technical skills and knowledge, behavioural capabilities, having regard for the job requirements; (2) a current resume; (3) the names and contact details of two referees (one should be a current Supervisor/Manager); and (4) a copy of your current driver's licence. Please ensure you submit all four items.

Applications should be submitted via the Apply Now button below.

Applicants should note that a Joint Selection Committee (JSC) established in accordance with the collective/enterprise agreement provisions will assess all applications for this position.

Overview of the work area and position:

The Justice Health Services, Dhulwa Mental Health Unit (DMHU) and the Extended Care Unit (ECU) provides high quality inpatient mental health care to people from 18 to 65 years of age.

The Dhulwa Mental Health Unit (DMHU) is a secure mental health facility that first opened in November 2016.

DMHU provides 24-hour, contemporary, evidence-based clinical mental health care for people who require secure inpatient treatment. DMHU provides a therapeutic and recovery-based approach, focused on individually tailored treatment programs to maximise mental health care outcomes for patients. The service aims to provide collaborative care involving the person, their carers and other key services.

The ECU is a specialist mental health facility adjacent to Calvary Hospital in Bruce. The ECU sits within the Stepped Care Model of mental health care, providing medium term residential care for people who require rehabilitation and support to transition into the community setting. The ECU provides a range of contemporary, community focused rehabilitation interventions, programs and services. DMHU offers 10 acute care beds and 15 rehabilitation beds and the ECU has 5 beds for community transition. Both units are managed by the Justice Health Services (JHS) program in the MHJHADS Division. These positions will provide senior nursing leadership for the clinical and administrative operations across both the DMHU and the ECU. This includes the day-to-day management of nursing care and the allocation of human and material resources to ensure the provision of safe, efficient, cost effective, high quality health care services.

Six community health centres: providing a range of general and specialist health services to people of all ages.

A range of community-based health services including Early Childhood Services, Youth and Women's Health, Dental Health, Mental Health, Alcohol and Drug Services. Overview of the work area and position

Mental Health, Justice Health and Alcohol and Drug Services (MHJHADS) provide health services directly and through partnerships with community organisations. The services provided range from prevention and treatment to recovery, maintenance of wellbeing and harm minimisation. The participation of people accessing our services, their families and carers is encouraged in all aspects of service planning and delivery. The Division works in partnership with a range of government and non-government service providers to ensure the best possible outcomes for clients.

The Division delivers services at a number of locations, including hospital inpatient and outpatient settings, community health centres, detention centres, other community settings including people's home. These services include:

Adult Acute Mental Health Services

Adult Community Mental Health Services

Alcohol and Drug Services

Child and Adolescent Mental Health Services (CAMHS)

Justice Health Services, and

Rehabilitation and Specialty Mental Health Services

Overview of the work area and position:

The nursing position is based in the Gungahlin Mental Health Team, a multidisciplinary team that is part of Adult Community Mental Health Services (ACMHS). Nursing staff working within MHJHADS are required to support people to achieve their personal recovery goals as identified in their Recovery Plan.

The ACMHS provide services for people aged over 18 years and operate from the five Community Health Centres in the ACT (Gungahlin, Belconnen, City, Phillip, Tuggeranong) with a strong focus on the provision of timely and effective mental health interventions. The program is in the final stages of implementing a new model of care which will improve the responsiveness and diversity of services offered to people. The new MoC is underpinned by principles of recovery and aims to: Increase standardisation of procedures, processes and practices to promote more internal consistency in service delivery and best practice interventions

Clarify and delineate the role and service functions to reduce duplication and inefficiencies, reduce administrative burden on staff and promote more direct clinical contact

Provide optimal treatment for people in their homes and community as effective hospital diversion

The successful applicant will be required to work as a member of the multidisciplinary team providing assessment and management of people experiencing mental illness. The applicant will be highly motivated to engage in consultative and educative practices with families, carers and other agencies.

The successful applicant will also be required to undertake professional development and clinical supervision, participate in quality initiatives, and contribute to multidisciplinary team processes.

Importantly the new MoC will allow greater opportunity for clinicians' to deliver discipline specific interventions, with case-loads reflecting strengths based models of care. The position reports to a Team Leader and Senior Clinician who are both based on site in the health centre. The position is supported by a cohesive multidisciplinary team, including other Nurses, Social Workers, Occupational Therapists, Psychologists and Psychiatrists and Allied Health Assistants. This is an exciting opportunity for someone who may be interested in working in a program that comprises access, hospital diversion, assertive outreach, and community recovery and therapy services.

Qualifications and experience:

Mandatory Qualifications:

Tertiary qualifications in Nursing with current registration with the Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency (AHPRA).

To complete your application you must prepare responses to the Selection Criteria as a document to be uploaded and included with your application.

Gazetted: 19 March 2020

Closing Date: 2 April 2020

Details: Are you looking for an interesting and diverse career? ACT Health's Health Protection Service (HPS) may have the role for you in Environmental Health. The role of the Environmental Health area is to protect and promote the good health of the ACT community through the fostering of safe and healthy environments. The HPS Environmental Health area includes the Environmental Health Food section and the Environment and Radiation Safety section. Your role as an environmental health team leader ranges from managing a team of Public Health Officers in the delivery food and environmental health regulatory functions to the implementation of quality assurance strategies. Other duties also include the provision of high-level advice to senior management and external stakeholders and the investigation of outbreaks or other potential public health risks. The role would suit someone with tertiary qualifications and extensive experience in environmental health. We are looking for dynamic self-driven individual that is flexible and wants to be part of a leadership team that works with stakeholders to improve public health outcomes for the ACT. The ACT Public Service supports workforce diversity and is committed to creating an inclusive workplace. As part of this commitment, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples, people with disability, culturally diverse people and those who identify as LGBTIQ are encouraged to apply.

Eligibility/Other Requirements:

Mandatory:

- Degree or Graduate Diploma or Masters in Environmental Health or equivalent Environmental Health qualifications that is accredited by Environmental Health Australia;
- Drivers licence.

Highly Desirable:

- Certification for auditing high risk food processes and activities.

Prior to commencement successful candidates will be required to:

- Undergo a pre-employment National police check.
- The successful applicant may be required to be registered under the Working with Vulnerable People (Background Checking) Act 2011.

Note: Selection may be based on written application and referee reports only. An order of merit will be established from this selection process and may be used to fill future identical permanent or temporary vacancies over the next 12 months.

How to Apply: Please ensure that you address each criteria in your application. The online application form requires a written response and a curriculum vitae to be provided as a minimum. Please attach referee reports as part of your application. There is a limit of 10MB and 10 documents per application in the online application. Your statement of claims against the selection criteria should summaries how your skills and experiences would enable you to fulfil the responsibilities of the position. It is therefore in the interests of candidates to present their application in a way that demonstrates significant outcomes associated with each of the criteria, as well as the capabilities and behaviours that underpin them. These are the key measures for how you will be assessed in conjunction with your resume and experience. Applicants should call the contact officer for advice on whether they are eligible to apply.

Infrastructure Delivery Partners

Commercial Project Management

Project Manager

Infrastructure Officer 3 $107,723 - $118,250, Canberra (PN: 01989)

Gazetted: 23 March 2020

Closing Date: 6 April 2020

Details: Do you like a challenge and want to be a key part of a high performing team who work to support a safe and vibrant city? Then this opportunity is for you!

Major Projects Canberra was established on 1 July 2019 to lead the procurement and delivery of the Territory's infrastructure program. It has two main components:

Procuring and delivering infrastructure projects designated by the Chief Minister into Major Projects Canberra. Typically, those designated projects will have significant complexity and scale. Major Projects Canberra will be a budget accountability for those projects and have accountability to the relevant Minister responsible for those projects. The first projects designated into Major Projects Canberra are: the SPIRE Canberra Hospital project, the City to Woden light rail (as well as finalisation of the Light Rail Stage 1 delivery phase); the CIT campus development; and the Canberra Theatre redevelopment; and Delivering other whole-of-government infrastructure projects in partnership with other Directorates.

Led by the Chief Projects Officer, Major Projects Canberra reports to the Head of Service and is accountable directly to the Treasurer and the relevant Ministers.

Other functions of Major Projects Canberra include contractor pre-qualification and IRE Certification, project management and reporting, superintendency of works and WHS Active Certification. The Infrastructure Branches of Social, Commercial and Civil provide advice to directorates and Treasury in relation to the planning and business case approval process for most of the capital works program, and deliver the design, construction and defects phases of the projects. This includes buildings such as schools, emergency services facilities and justice facilities; capital upgrades of ACT Government building assets; landscaping projects; civil works such as roads, stormwater, street-lighting; transport and works associated with land release; and health infrastructure projects such as improvements to the Canberra Hospital, community health centres and the new University of Canberra Hospital. The three branches manage approximately $600 million of capital works each year.

Eligibility/Other Requirements:

A degree or diploma in a relevant technical field (Engineering, Architecture, Project Management or Construction Management);

OR

Demonstrated relevant experience in Project Management, Procurement and Contract Management.

Desirable:

Experience in the delivery of projects using a GC21 contract.

Note: This position is available as a temporary for six months with a possible extension up to five years. An order of merit will be established from this selection process and may be used to fill future identical vacancies over the next 12 months.

How to Apply: If the above role sounds like you and you want to be part of a dynamic and dedicated team please submit no more than two pages addressing the capabilities and your suitability for the role, a current curriculum vitae and contact details of two referees.

Applications should be submitted via the Apply Now button below.
