ACT Corrective Services

Community Corrections

Probation and Parole

Probation and Parole Officer

Administrative Services Officer Class 6 $76,337 - $87,366, Canberra (PN: 11235, Several)

Gazetted: 08 January 2016

Closing Date: 22 January 2016

Details: ACT Corrective Services (ACTCS) is seeking professional people from a variety of backgrounds to join Community Corrections as Probation and Parole Officers (PPO). These positions are based in Canberra, which is located three hours drive south of Sydney. A career as a PPO is unlike any other in the public service and is challenging and genuinely rewarding. In collaboration with offenders, you will be required to assess, develop, implement and monitor case management plans that aim to reduce the potential for reoffending. You will also be required to carry out home visit assessments and supervise and monitor offenders living in the community, as well as advise and direct offenders to appropriate community based offender management programs. As a PPO you will be required to provide written and verbal reports to the Courts and releasing authorities in relation to offender management, risk assessment and intervention. To be successful in this role, you will be able to work collaboratively, compose and edit complex written material and demonstrate a high level of analytical and organisational skills. A capacity to meet critical deadlines is essential. Whilst experience working with offenders and relevant tertiary qualifications are highly desirable, as is case management experience, we are interested in hearing from people from a variety of backgrounds.

Eligibility/Other Requirements: Applicants are required to submit five items: (1) ACT Government Application Cover Sheet; (2) statement addressing the selection criteria (no more than four pages); (3) a current resume; (4) the names and contact details of two referees; and (5) a copy of their driver's licence. Please ensure you submit all five items. Ideally, one of the referees should be a current supervisor. Candidates who are not currently working may use an immediate past supervisor. Candidates who are self-employed may use two customers to whom they have provided a service in the last 18 months. There are four stages to this recruitment process: (1) initial application assessment; (2) psychometric (psychological aptitude) testing (please note, we are unable to provide feedback about the results of the psychometric test); (3) interview; and (4) referee assessment. Applicants who successfully complete each stage of the recruitment process will be offered a permanent position subject to the completion of a criminal history check and Working with Vulnerable People clearance. If you are successful you will be supported to complete a fully funded Certificate IV in Correctional Practice (Community) by our in house team of trainers and assessors within your first 12 months. This is a nationally recognised qualification that is mandatory in some other Australian jurisdictions. Recognition of Prior Learning is available. Please note that progression from one stage of the recruitment process to the next is dependent on your comparative performance against other candidates, including external candidates, at each stage. All current ACTCS employees are required to undertake each stage of the process including the psychometric test. To be eligible for permanent employment, you must be an Australian Citizen or a Permanent Resident of Australia (including New Zealand citizens). Current registration issued under the Working with Vulnerable People (Background Check) Act 2011 will be required. For further information on Working with Vulnerable People registration refer to - https://www.accesscanberra.act.gov.au/app/answers/detail/a_id/1804.

Notes: Applications close at 5:00pm on 22 January 2016.

For further information on Working with Vulnerable People registration refer to - https://www.accesscanberra.act.gov.au/app/answers/detail/a_id/1804. Permanent and casual Officers will be required to complete a Certificate III in Correctional Practice within the first 12 months. Current Correctional Officers of ACT Corrective Services will be required to undertake each stage of the recruitment process, including psychometric assessment; however, progression from one stage to the next is not assured and will depend on performance compared to all other candidates, including external candidates, assessed at each stage. To be eligible for permanent appointment, you must be an Australian citizen or a permanent resident of Australia (includes New Zealand citizens). For casual employment this is not a requirement. A current driver's licence is also required.

ACT Corrective Services

Community Corrections

Probation and Parole

Practice Manager

Senior Professional Officer Grade A $131,412, Canberra (PN: 34756)

Gazetted: 08 January 2016

Closing Date: 22 January 2016

Details: Community Corrections delivers best practice offender management in the Australian Capital Territory. Community Corrections seeks to employ a Practice Manager as a Senior Professional Officer Grade A. To be eligible, applicants must have qualifications in either Law, Criminal Justice, Social Work, Psychology or a related discipline. Preference will be given to applicants who have expertise in community corrections in an Australian jurisdiction. This is a continuing position subject to six months probation. The successful candidate will ensure the management of the practice fully supports the delivery of best practice offender management (e.g. through the development and implementation of systems and processes). The successful candidate will also ensure Community Corrections staff are enabled to deliver best practice offender management (e.g. through a comprehensive approach to training and building the capacity of managers to lead thoughtfully and confidently). Additionally, the successful candidate will develop and maintain networks across government, non-government and relevant peak bodies. Another key function of this role is the provision of high level advice to executive staff on Australian and international developments in the field of community corrections.

Eligibility/Other Requirements: As this is a Professional Officer position, applicants must have one specified qualification to be eligible. In this case the minimum qualifications are undergraduate qualifications in either Law, Criminal Justice, Social Work, Psychology or a related discipline. Current registration issued under the Working with Vulnerable People (Background Check) Act 2011 is essential. For further information on Working with Vulnerable People registration, refer to https://www.accesscanberra.act.gov.au/app/answers/detail/a_id/1804. A current driver's licence is desirable. To be eligible for permanent employment you must be an Australian citizen or a permanent resident of Australia (includes New Zealand citizens). Applicants are required to submit six items: (1) ACT Government Application Cover Sheet; (2) Statement of Claims against the Selection Criteria (maximum four pages); (3) current resume; (4) the names and contact details of two referees; (5) a certified copy of their academic transcript/s; and (6) a certified copy of their driver's licence (if you have one). Ideally, one of the referees should be a current supervisor. Candidates who are not currently working may use an immediate past supervisor. Candidates who are self-employed may use two customers to whom they have provided a service in the last 18 months.

Notes: Applications close at 5:00pm on 22 January 2016.

Custodial Operations

Alexander Maconochie Centre

Compliance Manager

Senior Officer Grade B $113,150 - $127,379, Canberra (PN: 36319)

Gazetted: 07 January 2016

Closing Date: 21 January 2016

Details: ACT Corrective Services (ACTCS) is pleased to offer the opportunity for an experienced individual to join Custodial Operations as a Compliance Manager. This position exists to manage data analysis and reporting, compliance reviews, project management and records and information management for the Custodial Operations Compliance team. Under the direction of the Deputy General Manager, Custodial Operations, the successful applicant will lead, manage and monitor the Custodial Operations Compliance team as well as provide compliance information, operational advice and procedural recommendations to relevant stakeholders. The successful applicant will oversee and administer the ACTCS Custodial Operations compliance framework as well as develop, coordinate and implement policies and procedures to reflect legislative needs and operational practices. The successful applicant will also be responsible for collecting, analysing and interpreting data, generating reports and providing advice, correspondence, reports and briefings requested for the Minister and other agencies as required. To be successful, you will be required to demonstrate high level communication and interpersonal skills in addition to strong leadership and management skills. You will also be able to demonstrate exceptional problem solving and strategic planning ability. To apply, applicants are required to submit five items: (1) ACT Government Application Cover Sheet; (2) statement addressing the selection criteria (maximum of one A4 page per criteria); (3) a current resume; (4) the names and contact details of two referees; and (5) a copy of their driver's licence. Please ensure you submit all five items. Ideally, one of the referees should be a current supervisor.

Eligibility/Other Requirements: A current driver's licence is required. Preparedness to work after hours, or be on call. Eligible candidates will be required to undergo a criminal history check. A demonstrated knowledge of and experience in Custodial Operations. Willingness to complete a Certificate IV in Government (Statutory Investigation and Enforcement) or equivalent. Qualifications relevant to the work of the Compliance Section within Corrections would be desirable.

Notes: Prior to commencing in this role, a current registration issued under the Working with Vulnerable People (Background Checking) Act 2011 may be required.
