

About Legislation, Policy and Programs: Legislation, Policy and Programs (LPP) advises on and develops policy and legislation in relation to all aspects of civil and criminal law in the Territory, including the administration of the justice system, and develops and administers a variety of justice and community safety initiatives. The Division is also responsible for managing the ACT's contract with ACT Policing, and works with other agencies in addressing underlying causes of crime.

LPP staff may be involved in working on a wide range of issues and tasks. These could include, for instance: building on the ACT's strong anti-discrimination and human rights framework; drafting instructions for reform of the law on personal or property crime or affecting access to justice; consulting with other justice agencies in developing innovative justice responses to the needs of victims of crime; developing policy and programs related to: regulatory licensing and reform; policing services for the ACT; crime prevention; justice statistics; First Nations justice; and victims of crime; or preparing submissions, speeches or other material for the Minister on these or other portfolio matters.

LPP staff work closely with other justice personnel including the courts, corrections, police, public prosecutors, legal aid, parliamentary counsel, government solicitors, community rights advocates, and our community sector partners such as victims' services. Staff also work closely with other ACT public service agencies and with our counterparts in the Commonwealth and the other states including the Northern Territory.
