Transformation Reform Group

Project Manager - Health Services Innovation

Senior Officer Grade C $97,514 - $104,967, Canberra (PN: 27464, several)

Gazetted: 11 August 2016

Closing Date: 18 August 2016

Details: About us: ACT Health is a values-led Directorate. Our values guide our day-to-day actions, behaviours, decisions and communications to successfully deliver the best services to meet the needs of our community. They were developed by us, for us and are unique to our work. In early 2016, Health Services Innovation (HSI) was established in ACT Health as the enabling division tasked to support the delivery of the System Innovation Program (SIP). HSI is the strategic centre for ACT Health, leading and co-ordinating initiatives across the directorate and the region to ensure health service delivery is patient-centred, seamless, timely and cost-effective. In its role as an enabling Division, the HSI is responsible for supporting other ACT Health Divisions in the delivery of key projects under the SIP. To meet this role, the HSI provides project management and procurement capability through the management of a number of panel contract arrangements and the procurement of consultant services. Within the HSI is an embedded consultant led Integrated Program Management Office (IPMO) responsible for developing the Project Management capability within ACT Health and the reporting systems and processes to support the delivery of the SIP. ACT Health is committed to building a culturally diverse workforce and an inclusive workplace. As part of this commitment we strongly encourage people from an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander background, or People with Disability, to apply for all positions. Overview of the work area and position: There are a number of Project Manager positions available across the Health Services Innovation Division. Project Managers will provide support to the relevant Project Directors by identifying and addressing issues and through assisting multiple project teams with matters such as reporting, risk management and scheduling of project activities. They will work under the direction of the Project Directors but must demonstrate initiative, be highly organized, and have excellent stakeholder management and interpersonal skills in addition to project management experience. Health Services Innovation provides strategic advice and support to other Divisions across ACT Health to support delivery of an organisational innovation agenda. Project Leads are aligned against the SIP themes to support and facilitate project delivery. Projects within the SIP are grouped under seven strategic themes including:

Access – is about improving ACT Health’s front door, and how we deliver excellence in patient and family centred care. Included in this stream will be projects focused on clinical service redesign and whole of hospital coordinated care.

Quality – is about setting meaningful and achievable goals and standards for the provision of healthcare in the Territory, benchmarking against our peers, and driving continual improvement.

Mental Health – a key focus for most contemporary health services is the effective, efficient and supportive implementation of mental health services. This theme will focus on assessing and implementing contemporary delivery models for mental health services.

Innovation and Sustainability – looking to the future, this theme centres around encouraging strategic thinking, developing a strong program and project delivery capability, and enabling safe access to technological and methodological advances in healthcare to the Canberra community.

Culture – this theme encompasses workforce strategies, as well as ethos, ethics, and the Directorate’s approach to a positive working environment. Three key elements include instilling a culture of service, reducing the incidence of unacceptable behaviour in the workplace, and emphasising ‘care’ as central to the delivery of health services.

Partnerships – developing and building on existing relationships across the ACT Government, the community and our service delivery partners including NSW and Calvary Hospital. This theme also encompasses our research and educational partners, as well as exploring the possibilities for partnerships with the private sector to support the efficient delivery of ACT Health services.

Infrastructure – an enabling service, infrastructure is essential to the delivery of health services. In the immediate future, ACT Health will focus on: optimal utilisation of existing assets, the on time and on budget delivery of capital works, and detailed evidence-based forward planning.

Eligibility/Other Requirements: Qualifications in project management and experience in using Microsoft Project or other project management software is desirable. Prior to commencement successful candidates will be required to undergo a pre-employment Police check.

Notes: This is a temporary position available for a period of two years with the possibility of extension for an additional year, and/or permanency from this process.
