The Australian Capital Territory Public Service (ACTPS) is a values-based organisation where all employees are expected to embody the prescribed core values of respect, integrity, collaboration and innovation, as well as demonstrate the related signature behaviours.

DIRECTORATE OVERVIEW

The Justice and Community Safety Directorate (the Directorate) seeks to maintain a safe, just and resilient and inclusive community.

Our purpose is to continuously improve the wellbeing of our community by delivering responsive justice and community safety services that:

- Maintain the rule of law and support a democratic society;
- Strengthens community safety;
- Protects people's legal and human rights and interests;
- Cares for and supporting people who are at a higher risk of vulnerability;
- Enhances timely access to justice;
- Builds community and business resilience to emergencies and disasters/disruptions; and
- Supports formal partnerships and shared decision making with First Nations Peoples.

We will invest in the capability of our people, and we will support them to deliver innovative and sustainable services for our ACT Community.

We will do this by demonstrating strong public sector values and behaviours; we will be community minded; legal and human rights focussed; inclusive and diverse; passionate about our work and we will listen to and genuinely engage with our stakeholders.

The Directorate advises and supports the following ministerial portfolios:

- Chief Minister
- Attorney-General
- Manager of Government Business
- Minister for Gaming Reform
- Minister for City and Government Services
- Minister for Night-Time Economy
- Minister for Police, Fire and Emergency Services
- Minister for Corrections
- Minister for Women
- Minister for Prevention of Family and Domestic Violence
- Minister for Human Rights

BUSINESS UNIT/AGENCY OVERVIEW

Legislation, Policy and Programs (LPP) advises on and develops policy and legislation in relation to all aspects of civil and criminal law in the Territory, including the administration of the justice system, and develops and administers a variety of justice initiatives and programs.

LPP staff may be involved in working on a wide range of issues and tasks. These could include, for instance: building on the ACT's strong anti-discrimination and human rights framework; drafting instructions for reform of the law on personal or property crime or affecting access to justice; consulting with other justice agencies in developing innovative justice responses to the needs of victims of crime; developing policy and programs related to: regulatory licensing and reform; Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander justice; and victims of crime; or preparing submissions, speeches or other material for the Minister on these or other portfolio matters. LPP also delivers restorative justice services.

LPP is currently comprised of three branches:

- the Civil and Regulatory Law Branch;
- the Criminal Law Branch; and
- the Human Rights Branch, which includes the Restorative Justice Unit.

LPP staff work closely with other justice agencies and officers - the courts, corrections, police, public prosecutors, legal aid, parliamentary counsel, government solicitors, community rights advocates, and our community sector partners such as victims' services. They also work closely with other ACT public service agencies and with our counterparts in the Commonwealth and the other states and the Northern Territory.

BRANCH OVERVIEWS

The Criminal Law Branch consists of three teams that support the ACT criminal justice system; Criminal Courts team, Domestic Family and Sexual Violence team and Frontline Criminal Justice. The Branch has responsibility for developing legislation relating to criminal law including forensic procedures, family violence, terrorism laws, firearms, sentencing, bail, criminal offences and police powers. It advises and supports the Attorney-General, Minister for Police, Fire and Emergency Services and Minister for Corrections in relation to related portfolio responsibilities.
