

About ACT Health Directorate

The ACT Health Directorate (AHD) is responsible for strategic direction and leadership of the ACT health system. AHD provides a strong policy and population health capability based on a foundation of world-leading health and medical research.

AHD develops strategies and sets the direction to ensure that services meet community needs and expectations, deliver improved health outcomes, and that the health system is innovative, effective, and sustainable now and in the future.

About the Temporary Employment Register

The Temporary Employment Register is used for short-term vacancies of up to three months within the AHD. All registrations on the Register are kept until 31 December of each year.

To remain on the register, you will need to complete a new application each year after 1 January.

If you are interested in longer-term or permanent opportunities within AHD, please visit Jobs ACT at www.jobs.act.gov.au.

Some of our positions require mandatory eligibility requirements. If you have any enquiries, please email AHDJobs@act.gov.au. Employment conditions and entitlements are governed by the Administrative and Related Classifications Enterprise Agreement 2021-2022, for more information, please refer to www.jobs.act.gov.au/about-the-actps/agreements.
